

The Arizona
Republican,
Only
Newspaper
in the State
Receiving Full
Associated Press Report

ARIZONA STATE FAIR NOVEMBER 15 TO 20

THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN

AN INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE JOURNAL

The Sun
Always Shines
At Phoenix,
Arizona — The Finest
Winter Climate in the World

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR

12 PAGES

PHOENIX, ARIZONA,

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12, 1915

12 PAGES

VOL. XXVI, NO. 177

AMERICAN NOTE SHOWS EXTENT OF VIOLATIONS

Cologne Gazette Says the Energy with Which President Has Taken Up the Settlement of American
Question is Acknowledged

AMERICA HAS SPOKEN THOROUGHLY

Immediate Future Will Show How Strong Is the Determination Behind the Words From America to Great Britain

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
COLOGNE, (Via London) Nov. 11.—What is said to be an inspired dispatch from Berlin to the Cologne Gazette on the American note to Great Britain, says:

"The energy with which the president, after the settlement of the controversy with Germany, has taken up the settlement of the Anglo-American question is acknowledged unreservedly here. There could be no more convincing documentary proof of the importance of American interests and the extent of the British violations of right than this note. America, it must be conceded, has spoken thoroughly and energetically. The immediate future will show how strong is the political determination behind the words."

An Irrefutable Document

BERLIN, (Via London) Nov. 11.—The Vossische Zeitung says it regards the American note to Great Britain as an irrefutable document from a legal standpoint, but that everything depends upon the practical things the authors intend it to achieve, "for they cannot have been in doubt that they have placed Great Britain between two alternatives: of either rejecting the American demands, or of surrendering all the advantages which the navy gives Great Britain in the war against the Germans."

Captain von Kuehlwetter, the local Anzeiger's naval specialist, says if the note puts an end to "British artfulness," the result will be gratifying and probably also will have an important bearing upon future maritime war.

Captain von Kuehlwetter thinks it is necessary to treat the note with great skepticism, declaring that it does not dispute Great Britain's right of arbitrarily extending her list of articles of absolute contraband.

Die Post says the note opens a new chapter in the history of the freedom of the seas.

"President Wilson," Die Post says, "has, at this time, changed. Formerly he saw only German infringements. But now he comprehends the deeper reasons for Germany's course, namely Great Britain's contempt for all foreign rights."

"What he now demands is nothing other than an end to 'British artfulness,' the result will be gratifying and probably also will have an important bearing upon future maritime war."

The newspaper expresses doubt whether economic interests will suffice to override "America's Anglo-Saxon sympathies."

FEDERATION TAKES DAY OFF

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor took a day off today and visited the Mare Island navy yard. They left here early on a specially chartered steamer for Vallejo where they were received as the guests of the city and entertained at luncheon.

CAPTURE GERMAN TRAWLERS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 11.—A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says the British warships of the North Sea, captured German trawlers in the North Sea.

Nationalist Member Makes An Attack On Kitchener

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Nov. 11.—Arthur Lynch, nationalist, today in the House of Commons made a strong attack against Lord Kitchener, who he said had blundered in not moving to the defense of Liege, again on the question of munitions and once again in Serbia.

"The blunder in the Dardanelles," he added, "was at least a blunder of a man who meant to do something." He contended that the war was being conducted with signal incompetency and that unless there was a change in the country "was moving straight to disaster. He would sweep

OVER TWO HUNDRED IS NOW GIVEN AS DEATH LIST OF THE ANCONA

URGES RELEASE OF BRUSSELS LAWYERS

PARIS, Nov. 11.—Henri Robert, president of the Paris Bar Association, speaking at the American club today, appealed to the American ambassador and the American government to endeavor by diplomatic means to secure the release of the eminent Belgian lawyer, M. Theodore, president of the Brussels Bar association, from the German prison at Ingoldstadt, where he said he was confined without any specific charge against him.

ROOT IS FOR AN EVEN BIGGER DEFENSE PLAN

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Former Senator Elihu Root, president of the Union League Club, presided tonight at a meeting of the club at which a resolution was passed in favor of a national defense program bigger than that proposed by the administration, one that will include a universal military service of all able bodied men and a navy of forty-eight ships of the line with full equipment.

In presenting the resolutions, Senator Root said:

"The war in Europe is not the cause of a movement for preparation for defense. That cause has long existed. The war in Europe is but the demonstration striking the imagination and convincing the judgment of the people of the United States upon the necessity for the adequate preparation for defense."

"Do not let us deceive ourselves. Adequate preparation for preservation of our liberty means a vast experience, but it means more than that, it means a willingness for self sacrifice, a spirit among our people along the length and breadth of our land, among the rich and the poor, among the highly educated and the graduates of the common school, among professional men, between merchants and bankers, farmers and laborers—a national spirit among the people of the land and a determination to preserve the liberty and justice of the American republic and to make a sacrifice of means and convenience comfort and it need be, of life in that cause."

STATEMENTS ARE UNTRUE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

BERLIN, (By Wireless to Tuckerton, N. J.) Nov. 11.—Among the items given out for publication today by the Overseas News Agency was the following: "The Italian statements that the Austrians have captured the town of Monte Sier are untrue. As was communicated in the Austro-Hungarian headquarters report, the Italians on November 7, captured Col Di Lana, who was recaptured by the Austro-Hungarians the next day. Monte Sier has never been captured by the Italians."

LIBERTY BELL STARTS ON LONG JOURNEY ACROSS COUNTRY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

PHOENIX, Nov. 11.—Three hours and ten minutes behind scheduled time, the Liberty Bell, enroute to San Diego from San Francisco, arrived in Fresno tonight at 9 o'clock and was cheered

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

by 10,000 men, women and children. Fancy packed boxes of raisins were presented to the Philadelphia delegation. A box of California fruit was given to Senator Penrose by the Central California branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers in appreciation of the work he has done for them.

Await Bell's Arrival

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 11.—The spirit of liberty is rampant here tonight on the eve of the arrival of the Liberty Bell. San Diego and the Panama-California exposition is ready for a patriotic outpouring in honor of the bell which is scheduled to arrive at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be exhibited in the Plaza de Panama at the exposition for three days.

On being transferred from its car in the morning the bell will be taken direct to the exposition on an automobile truck. It will be escorted by a squadron of the First Cavalry. Through the grounds to the Plaza de Panama it will be escorted by a battalion of the United States Marine Corps.

Saturday has been designated as Liberty Bell day at the exposition when a patriotic program in which school children will take a leading part will be given.

Only 225 Passengers and Crew Are Saved Out of
Total of 428 on Board
Steamer Says Dispatch
From Tunis

SHELLED FOR AN HOUR AND HALF

Submarine Was Flying the Austrian Flag and Had
Two White Turrets and
Was Armed With Four Guns

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

ROME, (Via Paris) Nov. 11.—Only 225 passengers and crew of the steamer Ancona were saved out of a total of 428 on board, says a dispatch from Tunis to the Corriere della Sera.

Two boats have arrived at Tunis, the dispatch said, one with thirty-seven survivors and the other with twenty-seven.

Passengers declared the steamer was shelled for an hour and a half by the submarine, which was flying the Austrian flag, when the torpedo struck the Ancona. The underwater craft had two white turrets and was armed with four guns.

An earlier dispatch from Naples announced the arrival at Cape Bon, Tunis, of a boat containing twenty-seven survivors of the Ancona. The dispatches disagree as to the number of passengers on the Ancona at 452 and the crew has been estimated at from 60 to 150.

Fires on Small Boats

PARIS, Nov. 11.—A dispatch to the Havre agency from Tunis says: "The captain of the Ancona, who arrived here today, confirmed previous reports that the hostile submarine fired upon his vessel while her boats were filled with passengers and ready to be lowered. Shells struck the boats, killing or wounding many passengers. The captain said boats were also struck by projectiles after they were in the water. The captain declared that no signal was given by the submarine, except that a shot was fired when the submarine was about five miles distant. The steamer, immediately stopped completely. The last gunshots were fired at a distance of about 3000 yards from the steamer. Several of the boats pulled close to the submarine, the captain of the Ancona said, but were warned off with insulting cries."

Torpedoing of Southland

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The war office has issued the following announcement:

"On September 2 the transport Southland for Alexandria was torpedoed in the Aegean sea, but reached Mudros under her own steam the same day. As a precautionary measure, the troops were transferred to other transports."

"There were some casualties amounting to nine killed, two slightly injured and twenty-two missing—believed to have been drowned."

RETIRE FROM MITROVITZA

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

PARIS, Nov. 11.—A dispatch to the Havre Agency from Athens dated Thursday, says the Serbian government has retired from Mitrovitza toward Knjevevo, northeast of Priepje.

LIBERTY BELL STARTS ON LONG JOURNEY ACROSS COUNTRY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

PHOENIX, Nov. 11.—Three hours and ten minutes behind scheduled time, the Liberty Bell, enroute to San Diego from San Francisco, arrived in Fresno tonight at 9 o'clock and was cheered

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

by 10,000 men, women and children. Fancy packed boxes of raisins were presented to the Philadelphia delegation. A box of California fruit was given to Senator Penrose by the Central California branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers in appreciation of the work he has done for them.

Await Bell's Arrival

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 11.—The spirit of liberty is rampant here tonight on the eve of the arrival of the Liberty Bell. San Diego and the Panama-California exposition is ready for a patriotic outpouring in honor of the bell which is scheduled to arrive at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be exhibited in the Plaza de Panama at the exposition for three days.

On being transferred from its car in the morning the bell will be taken direct to the exposition on an automobile truck. It will be escorted by a squadron of the First Cavalry. Through the grounds to the Plaza de Panama it will be escorted by a battalion of the United States Marine Corps.

Saturday has been designated as Liberty Bell day at the exposition when a patriotic program in which school children will take a leading part will be given.

LITTLE CHANGE ON WAR FRONTS SAYS LONDON

Austro-Germans Claim to Be Advancing Along the Lines West of Nish and Report Capture of More
Prisoners

SERBS FIGHT IN MOUNTAINS

Arrival of Field Marshal
Kitchener on South Battle
Front Brings Hope to British That Forces May
Soon Be on Offensive

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

LONDON, Nov. 11.—There has been no material change in the last twenty-four hours in the situation, either in Serbian or on the other fronts. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing along the line west of Nish, but beyond the report of the capture of another 4000 prisoners which the Serbians say like those reported previously, were largely civilians or Albanians or Macedonian. The Austro-Germans and Bulgarians claim to have suffered damage and many of them were demolished. Three persons were killed there and several injured. In a blow lasting only a few minutes the entire town was thrown into a mass of struggling humanity, wrecked homes, trees and fallen wires.

Reports of damage to buildings, death to livestock and injury to the inhabitants on isolated farms were received late today.

In Great Bend the lighting plant was destroyed and the wires over the greater part of the city were blown into a hopeless mass.

It was believed not an electric light would be available for more than a week.

Holsington, Kansas, was also supplied with the light power from the Great Bend plant.

Great Bend was without water in the city mains tonight and will be in that condition for several weeks, according to the city officials. The standpipe was blown down and the pumping plant destroyed.

Two Dead in Great Bend

GREAT BEND, Nov. 11.—The death toll of the tornado which struck Great Bend last night was established at two, according to an announcement made late today by the city officials. Eight persons were seriously injured and about 75 others suffered more or less bruises and cuts.

One of the injured were being cared for in a local hospital. It is estimated that upwards of twenty-five more with lesser injuries are being cared for in private homes.

The property loss estimated at half a million dollars was unchanged. A large part of the loss was in the railroad and industrial section of the town, where three large flouring mills and several grain elevators were destroyed. Although many families of the city are hard hit by the destruction of their homes, there was no indication of any real suffering today, and the situation, city officials assert, will be handled without outside aid.

The number of dead as the result of the tornado was raised to six.

M'OWAN SAYS DISBARMENT CHARGES ARE "FRAME-UP"

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Nov. 11.—Following the disbarment charges preferred today in the supreme court of California in San Francisco, District Attorney Barclay McCowan of Kern county tonight characterized the charges as a "frame up" to have him removed from office. He issued the following statement:

"These disbarment proceedings are a desperate counterattack on the part of the attorneys here to save E. J. Emmons, who was convicted in 1905 while state senator from Kern county, for soliciting and accepting a bribe in the state legislature and whose name I am fighting to have stricken from the roll of attorneys in California. Emmons is counsel for Ed. W. McCutchen, whom I am now prosecuting on a statutory charge preferred by a fourteen year old girl. The alleged charges brought today were investigated for six weeks by the 1915 Kern county grand jury which completely exonerated me, denounced McCutchen's attorney, who brought them, and indicted his client."

"Proceedings to disbar Emmons are now pending before the district court of appeals at Los Angeles. Briefs filed therein the first of this week are doubtless the immediate instigating

EIGHT IS DEATH TOLL IN STORM WHICH SWEEP OVER CENTRAL KANSAS

Although Greatest Damage
Was Done in Great Bend Reports Show Zyba Was
of All Towns Wrecked
Most Thoroughly

THREE PERSONS KILLED THERE

In Blow Lasting Only Few Minutes the Entire Town
Thrown Into a Mass of Struggling Humanity and Wrecked Homes

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11.—The number of dead in the wind storms which swept over Central Kansas early last night and wrecked hundreds of homes in its course through several towns, remained at eight tonight. Communication with all but a few outlying sections of the stricken district was re-established late today.

Although the damage was greatest in Great Bend, where a path three blocks wide through the industrial and residential sections was cut by a tornado, reports tonight show that Zyba, Kansas, a town of 200 population, was the most thoroughly wrecked of the towns and villages in the storm. Every building in Zyba is said to have suffered damage and many of them were demolished. Three persons were killed there and several injured. In a blow lasting only a few minutes the entire town was thrown into a mass of struggling humanity, wrecked homes, trees and fallen wires.

Reports of damage to buildings, death to livestock and injury to the inhabitants on isolated farms were received late today.

In Great Bend the lighting plant was destroyed and the wires over the greater part of the city were blown into a hopeless mass.

It was believed not an electric light would be available for more than a week.

Holsington, Kansas, was also supplied with the light power from the Great Bend plant.

Great Bend was without water in the city mains tonight and will be in that condition for several weeks, according to the city officials. The standpipe was blown down and the pumping plant destroyed.

Two Dead in Great Bend

GREAT BEND, Nov. 11.—The death toll of the tornado which struck Great Bend last night was established at two, according to an announcement made late today by the city officials. Eight persons were seriously injured and about 75 others suffered more or less bruises and cuts.

One of the injured were being cared for in a local hospital. It is estimated that upwards of twenty-five more with lesser injuries are being cared for in private homes.

The property loss estimated at half a million dollars was unchanged. A large part of the loss was in the railroad and industrial section of the town, where three large flouring mills and several grain elevators were destroyed. Although many families of the city are hard hit by the destruction of their homes, there was no indication of any real suffering today, and the situation, city officials assert, will be handled without outside aid.

The number of dead as the result of the tornado was raised to six.

STANLEY'S ELECTION IS CONCEDED

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11.—The election of former Congressman Augustus O. Stanley of Henderson, Kentucky, as governor of Kentucky, was conceded in a statement issued tonight by Edwin P. Morrow of Somerset, republican gubernatorial candidate in the election of November 2. Until tonight republican campaign managers had claimed a victory for Mr. Morrow. Returns from the 129 counties in the state showed a plurality for Mr. Stanley of slightly more than 300 votes.

SAND FORTRESS STANDS WHERE ROCK SUCCEUMBS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

BERLIN, Via London, Nov. 12.—The difficulties of the army besieging Dvinsk because of the nature of the fortress which is built of sand are pictured by Captain von Kueschuetzky, correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung.

"Had it been of rock," he says, "experts declare it would have been knocked to pieces long ago, but an artillery bombardment is of little avail against a sand fortress. It was captured fifteen times between September 15 and October 26, and still is not in the German's possession. It has been reduced in size one half without affecting the strength of the remainder."

"Every rod of land is covered with permanent trenches, roofed securely against shrapnel and shell fragments and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack of the assaulting forces, and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the sand trenches, skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently